California law requires all drivers to have auto insurance.

If you drive without insurance you could:

- have your vehicle registration suspended.
- have your license suspended.
- have your car impounded.
- be fined.

Are you driving without insurance because you can't afford the rates?

The State of California has developed a program to help income eligible good drivers get low cost automobile insurance for under $400 a year.
(Liability only)

Policies are issued by California licensed insurance companies. California's Low Cost Automobile Insurance policies satisfy the state's liability insurance requirement.

You can qualify for California's Low Cost Automobile Insurance Program if:

- you have a good driving record.
- you are at least 19 years of age.
- you have been licensed to drive for at least three years.
- you own a vehicle that is valued at $20,000 or less.
- your income qualifies (see chart on opposite page.)
- you live in one of the qualifying counties (see list on opposite page.)
