

Note: In compliance with San Francisco’s shelter-in-place order, Consumer Action staff are working from home. As such, we will not be able to ship print publications until we can return to our office, projected for June 1st. Despite the delay, we are still accepting orders!

PUBLICATIONS FROM CONSUMER ACTION

It will take three to four weeks for you to receive the materials. Agencies that are affiliate network members receive their first six bulk orders for free; otherwise there will be a $15 shipping fee per 500 copies. We will send an invoice for you to approve the cost of your order before shipment. If you have any questions, please email info@consumer-action.org.

A guide to finding the right job training school (Limit: 100 copies per language) Job training can be a valuable investment in your future—if the school or program is reputable and fairly priced. This guide is designed to help anyone considering a job training program or vocational school make an informed choice, avoid excessive or unwarranted student loan debt, and know where to turn if they believe they are a victim of for-profit school fraud.
Finding a right vocational, technical or trade school: Q&A backgrounder guide (Limit: 5 copies) This Consumer Action “question and answer” manual is designed to provide background information about evaluating job training schools and choosing and managing student loans for these programs. It is designed to be used in conjunction with the “Guide to finding the right job training school.” There is also a lesson plan and PowerPoint presentation for use by consumer education trainers. <input type="checkbox"/> Please check this box if you need one copy of the lesson plan. (1 copy per agency)

Note: You can also download a PDF version of the brochures, leader’s guide, lesson plan and PowerPoint training slides from the Consumer Action website at http://www.consumer-action.org/modules/job_training_schools.
